

Fair Housing is the Law

The Indiana Fair Housing Act (IFHA) makes it illegal to discriminate in the provision of housing and housing-related transactions based on:

Race | Color | Sex | Disability | Religion
National Origin | Familial Status (having children under 18)

This includes:

Rental or purchase of a dwelling

Purchase of vacant land intended for housing

Provision of loans for purchase or improvement of housing

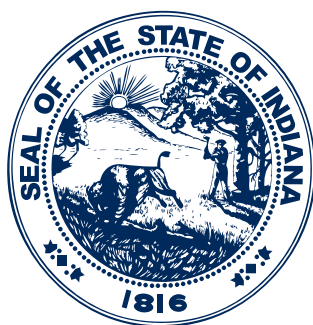

Advertisement and marketing of housing

Provision of homeowners or renters insurance

Appraisal of property

Membership in real estate associations or brokerage services

Denial of reasonable accommodation/modification for persons with a disability
